

2017 Young Careerist Speech Topics

BPW/Vermont

For Use In Local and State Competitions

One of the BPW Foundation Public Policy Advocacy issues is work-life balance. The Foundation notes that 90 percent of American mothers and 95 percent of American fathers report work-family conflict.

For your Young Careerist speech, please address the following topic:

How do you handle adversity in your personal and professional life (in the past and currently) and continue to remain focused on your career and being successful?
