PRESENTS:
CAMP BPW

Camp BPW is a one-day program for girls aged 15-18 interested in learning about real-world strategies designed to prepare them for adult life. This program will provide knowledge with basic skills in financial planning, goal setting, decision-making and career planning.

The St. Johnsbury chapter of BPW is seeking participants for this program being held on January 30, 2015 from 8:15 am to 2:15 pm at the Lyndon Institute auditorium in Lyndon Center. The deadline for reserving seats is December 5, 2014.

Participants taking part in this program will participate in activities including:

- Reality Store (real life simulation regarding life decisions)
- Motivational Speaker
- Lunch
- Job Preparation
- Work Etiquette
- Community Service Project

Participants will be required to complete a pre-program assignment in preparation for the day that will require some research into occupations that interest them. Further information will be sent to participants in advance to allow time for this preparation.

Costs for participation, including lunch and materials, are paid for by generous contributions from local members and businesses. If interested, please complete the enclosed reservation form and return via email at vtbpw@outlook.com or via regular mail to Staci Smith 664 US Route 2B St. Johnsbury, VT 05819.
